

AOR 'ATLANTIC' AWARDED YOUNG BULGARIAN TALENTS IN THE FIELD OF MATHEMATICS & INFORMATICS

On April 11, 2012, AOR 'Atlantic' and the European Network of Excellence in Managing Threats and Vulnerabilities for the Future Internet – SySSec, represented by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Zlatogor Minchev, awarded young Bulgarian talents in the field of mathematics and informatics, participants in XII student session of XLI Spring Conference of the Union of Bulgarian Mathematicians, resort of Borovets, Samokov, Bulgaria.

The excellent award on mathematics was given to Yanitsa Pehova (XII class) for her work 'Mad Lifts'. Atanas Atanasov & Vasil Vodenicharov (X class) got the excellent award on informatics for their game 'Don't be angry' for tablet with Android platform. The three students are from High School of Mathematics 'Baba Tonka', Rousse, Bulgaria.

Lyubomir Yanchev (X class, Deutsche Schule Erich Kästner) and Christo Stoyanov (IX class, Sofia High School of Mathematics 'Paisii Hilendarski') from Sofia, got the innovation award for their work 'The Modern Butler'.

Dr. Minchev awarded the students with honorary diplomas and digital MP3 players 'Sony'.